PRP MASTER - Sep 12 reconciled draft.docx

Amy and EPA contract team,

This document is the first “binational” document developed by the two countries. Please begin formatting this document.

As far as the future outlook goes... We will be seeking final edits from our EPA/ECCC executives later this week. We may have another set of edits, expected to be few and minor, later this week or perhaps early next week.

Amy, if you could confirm this document was received, that would be great. Thanks!
